

Treasury Department,

BUREAU OF THE MINT,

Washington, D. C., February 4th, 1885.

Sir:

Referring to your letter of yesterday, you are instructed to make the necessary preparation for the meeting of the Annual Assay Commission at the Philadelphia Mint on the eleventh instant.

As the work will be continuous, and will probably require the personal attendance of the commissioners until late Thursday evening, you are authorized to make arrangements to provide lunches during the session, and a dinner for Thursday evening at its close, for the members of the Commission, the officers of the Mint, and for such other persons as may be requested by the Commission to assist in the assay.

Very respectfully,
Horatio B. Bruchard.
